

Arlington Has A Real Festival Show

Large Crowds Attend;
Fine Program; Will Continue To Saturday

It is Arlington Heights first experience with a real festival, but it has proven to be very much worth while. Every booth in the huge tent is occupied by local business firms, who have created attractive displays that excite the eyes and Ahs of the hundreds of visitors.

It is a veritable Arlington Heights world's fair with instructive and educational exhibits, including demonstrations as well as advertising displays.

Outstanding entertainment numbers during the evening are added features that draw large crowds before the entertainment platform. The tent is so well located that there is room for a thousand cars within three blocks of the festival. There is a galaxy of rides adjoining the big tent for the younger generation.

A matinee will be held Saturday afternoon, during which time all rides will be only five cents in place of the customary 10 cents.

There is so much to see that the visitors are urged to come early because they are certain to stay late.

The Herald has a display of pictures taken following the fire in that plant last Thanksgiving, "moving day" to the new building and a number of interesting files of that newspaper, recording many special events. It is interesting to note that all of the advertisers of forty years ago, only one, Peter Hartmann, is alive today.

Saturday Matinee
Entertainment features for remaining evenings of the festival are:

Thursday evening: Junior Drum and Bugle Corps and a nationally known musician.

Friday night: 122nd Field Artillery Band. This is considered the outstanding entertainment for the entire festival and it was through friendship that it was secured for Arlington Heights.

Saturday night: Barn dance show with Miles Burpee and C. L. Griffith as the ringleaders. The young people appearing in this show opening night, had a lot of life.

There are fifteen to twenty free prizes given away each night with the advertised large prizes for Saturday night.

Palatine Plan To License Food Trucks

Local Business Firms May Be Included; Follow Other Villages

A draft of an ordinance which would license all food trucks making deliveries to Palatine residences or business houses was presented to the village board for consideration Monday evening.

No definite action was taken on the ordinance as it is the purpose of the committee to have a companion ordinance drawn up which will put a nominal license on all local food dealers.

The ordinance was referred to the judiciary committee for a public hearing at some date in the near future.

Food and delivery trucks are licensed in nearly all villages and Palatine is far behind in this matter.

It is expected that a public hearing on the ordinance will be called in the near future.

The village board passed a busy evening hearing reports, passing bills and going through routine business.

A resolution was passed by the board restoring two south side street lights that were discontinued at the height of the depression.

The question of the vacation of Gorsline's south subdivision was discussed and the board expressed itself as agreeable to having the owner start proceedings for such a vacation.

The question of better railroad crossings in the village was discussed and improved crossings have been promised as soon as the railroad can get some new plans.

Baby Clinics Tuesday
The Arlington Heights health committee has announced the infant and the pre-school clinics will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the health center in the village hall.

The infant clinic is scheduled between 1 to 3 p. m. and the two to five year olds, between 3 to 5 p. m.

CHILD HEALTH STATION SCHEDULE FOR OCTOBER
The child health station schedule announced for October by the Rural Public Health Nursing Service is as follows:

October 11 — Wheeling public school, 1 to 3 p. m.

October 18 — Palatine village hall, 1 to 3 p. m.

October 19 — Glenview village hall, 1 to 3 p. m.

October 25 — Mt. Prospect public library, 1 to 3 p. m.

Arlington Welcomes Many New Residents

Newcomers Find Homes
In All Sections Of
The Municipality

A visit to the local realty offices in Arlington Heights discloses that more new residents have come to town during the past ten days than at any like period for several years. There are still a number of homes for rent but they will probably be all filled before November 1.

In behalf of the Trade and Civic Association the Herald welcomes the following newcomers:

Otto Gaare, 218 S. Evergreen.

Guy Davis, 300 S. Dunton.

Marvin F. Tackett, 530 S. Chestnut.

L. J. Webster, 522 S. Chestnut.

C. Tonnemann, 945 N. Harvard.

H. P. Fairchild, 234 S. Dunton.

Taylor Lewis, 636 Mayfair Rd.

J. E. Wood, 1106 N. Clarendon.

Wm. Hoffbauer, 545 S. Evergreen.

J. E. Millay, 122 S. Highland.

Dr. J. A. Cousins, 511 Beverly Ave.

E. E. Wood, 1145 N. Harvard.

Herman Phillips, 611 E. Euclid.

C. J. Sherman, 618 S. Highland.

B. Cochrane, 528 S. Highland.

G. N. Morrissey, 405 S. Dunton.

While we are welcoming the newcomers, we also speed the parting, who are:

Chas. Watson to Michigan. He expects to travel a part of the winter.

Harold F. Moe, to 4953 N. Oakley Ave., Chicago.

Wm. Landham to 500 Webbford Ave., Des Plaines.

W. F. Rose, to 821 Forest Ave., Evanston.

Mr. Jacobsen from 1145 Harvard to Mt. Prospect.

Steve Benic to 5216 S. Wells, Chicago.

There are others who are only taking up new abodes in Arlington Heights. They are:

Henry Cuscaden, from 211 N. Belmont to 137 Drury Lane.

K. Oden, 234 S. Mitchell to Pingree second flat.

Jos. Morici, from 945 N. Harvard to 529 N. Chestnut.

Ernest O'Brien, from 629 N. Chestnut to Guild apartments.

Alfred Sander from 310 S. Walnut to his new home, 135 S. Pine.

Vernon Sander, to 310 S. Walnut.

B. J. Malberg to his new house, 1408 E. Kensington Road.

Take Note, Californians; Hagenbrings Prefer Life In Alabama to West

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hagenbring returned home Sunday after two months spent in the west and at their home in Alabama, more sure than ever that the latter is a far better place to live than in the golden state of California.

The Hagenbrings are ready to give a lot of credit to the Pacific northwest, but when it comes to California where green grass and trees are only obtained in the same manner that a woman resorts to beauty treatment to enhance her beauty, they prefer their state of Alabama, where there are real trees, real grass and trees without the use of continued beauty treatments over the landscape.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagenbring left Arlington Heights August 1st, traveling to Denver, Yosemite, Salt Lake City, Mt. Rainer, Portland, Seattle, Coulee Dam, Vancouver by boat, Petrified Forest, Redwood Forest, Painted Desert, Grand Canyon, San Francisco Fair, Los Angeles, San Diego, Boulder Dam and they could not get to Alabama quick enough.

They found the fair beautiful, but so cold that the public remained in the buildings during the evenings and it lacked the carnival spirit. While in Los Angeles they called on Ray Johnson.

After four weeks spent at their home at Magnolia Springs, Alabama, they returned home prepared to start alterations on their building which will mean a larger and more complete store. The space formerly occupied by the Lake-Cook Farm Supply will be added to the present store.

Mrs. Louise Gahlbeck Celebrates Anniversary

Mrs. Louise Gahlbeck celebrated her 62nd birthday Sunday at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tatze. A fine chicken dinner was served and many gifts were presented to the honored guest. It was a day that she will long remember, especially the wishes of many more happy birthdays.

Enjoy September Trip Through The Smokies

With Gertrude Wiese as the chauffeur and her mother and sister as the passengers, these three Arlington people enjoyed a week's vacation trip through the Smokies, to Asheville, N. Carolina, and all the scenic places in the mountains. Miss Wiese says that she enjoyed southern hospitality, but she prefers to reside in the Chicago area.

12 Women Keep Secret 25 Years

Twenty-five years is a long time to keep a secret, but when twelve women do so, it is an accomplishment worth telling to the world.

In 1914 a group of Arlington Heights young ladies formed the L. B. A. club. That club met regularly for fifteen years when the arrival of babies and other interests began to interfere. However, Miss Ada Winheim was recently hostess to the former L. B. A. members. They were all present. All of them are married except the hostess. It was a very enjoyable occasion as the matrons of today talked over their yesterdays.

There is one secret that these members have guarded for a quarter of a century—the meaning of the letters "L. B. A." At first it was the curiosity of the male friends of the group that piqued the girls who took an oath never to tell. Perhaps there is a husband or two who has now been let into the secret, but otherwise the meaning of those letters is still a deep mystery.

The matrons of today who in their school girl enthusiasm formed the club in 1914 are: Mrs. Elmer Crane, Mrs. Walter Sieburg, Mrs. Edward Radloff, Mrs. H. Albrecht, Mrs. Wm. Linnemann, Mrs. Ralph Stippick, Ada Winheim, Mrs. Herman Schwolew, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Ellis, Des Plaines; Mrs. M. Rudnek and Mrs. A. Michael of Chicago.

High School Band Presents 'Swanky' Appearance

The Arlington Heights high school band presented a very swanky appearance as they strutted down the field at the football game Saturday, in their new uniforms, at the game between Arlington Heights and Crystal Lake.

The drum majorette, Marjan Hardke, was most appealing to the eye in her new drum major's costume of fitted red jacket, full white skirt and white hat adorned with a red plume, as she led the band down the field in excellent formation.

A new feature of the band this year, baton twirling, was presented for the first time by four baton twirlers, Myrtle Rapp, Edith Croft, Marilyn Klehm and Betty Graham, who made a snappy appearance in their white trousers and shirts with red sashes and new caps.

During the half, the band played selections for the Crystal Lake fans and the Arlington Heights rooters.

The band will present a concert at the Arlington Heights Festival on Wednesday evening, October 4.

Annual Scout Drive For Funds Starts Next Week

Scoutcraft for 100 Scouts Awaits Financial Support of Public

The people of Arlington Heights have endorsed wholeheartedly the Boy Scout and Cub Scout activities as a splendid program of character building for young boys and annually have contributed to their financial support.

This year as in the past, they will again be presented with the financial assistance of our over 100 Boy Scout and Cub Scout members.

It costs approximately $6.00 per Scout or Cub per year to finance them in the ordinary routine of their training, over 75% of which is invested directly in the activities and training program of the boys. Less than twenty-five per cent is required for overhead operating expense. There is only one paid Scout executive. He directs the Northwest Suburban Council, all other officers serving without compensation.

Sometime between Oct. 12 and 20 a volunteer worker will call at Arlington Heights homes to solicit financial help. As the success of the entire Scout and Cub Scout program is in a great measure dependent upon the public's support the committee earnestly requests generous contributions.

This year funds are particularly needed for the further development of the year round camp, Dan Beard, northeast of Wheeling.

Support of the financial drive helps toward the development of Arlington Heights community by aiding in the development of its future leaders.

60 CHICKENS MISSING

60 chickens were stolen from the Davis farm, Castle rd. and the Northwest highway, Barrington, Sunday. It was reported that the thieves entered the premises between 12 and 9 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Blum Married 50 Years

The fall session of the Court of Honor for the Scouts of the Central District of the Northwest Suburban Council Boy Scouts of America which includes Des Plaines, Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights and Wheeling will be held at the North School in Arlington Heights on next Wednesday evening, October 11 at 8:00 o'clock.

Dr. S. A. Purves who has made a number of trips to Mexico by airplane, will show motion pictures of his flights and tell of his experiences.

Among the Scouts who will receive advancement are as follows: Troop 7 sponsored by the Parents' Organization of Arlington Heights, W. A. Miles, Scoutmaster; Kay Sebert, Life Scout award; Kay Sebert, swimming, personal health, athletics merit badges; Elmer Thorson, canoeing, pioneering merit badges; Charles Proctor, safety, woodworking, rowing, masonry, firemanship, machinery merit badges; Lawrence Knaack, pioneering, canoeing, merit badges.

The parents and friends of Scouts are cordially invited to attend this Court of Honor.

Arlington National Installs Night Depository Vault

Workmen completed the installation Wednesday of a night depository vault in the building of the Arlington Heights National bank. This permits those who have night receipts to make deposits at hours when the bank is closed.

Buddy Weisman Secures Booking At Oriental

Buddy Weisman, protege of Sid Page of Palatine, won the amateur contest Friday night at the Oriental theatre and has been given a week professional contract at the Oriental theatre, Chicago, starting Sunday, October 15.

Mrs. Blum, who was the daughter of Frederick Dahms, has two sisters, Mrs. Handelman and Mrs. Schiffman, both of Chicago.

Blame Peat For Sewer Collapse In Palatine

Road Contractor Tried To Cheat; Was Caught

Palatine has been having considerable trouble, the last week with a cave in of the segmental block sewer at Colfax and Smith Sts.

The ground in that territory is largely composed of peat and there was a great deal of trouble there when the original pavements and sewers were laid in that vicinity.

To add to the woes of the village the contractor after being told to put in a certain sized tile took it upon himself to put in a smaller one, rush the work through and cover up the job but he got caught at it anyway and had the pleasure of doing it over and doing it right.

Not only has the block sewer caved in at that corner but a section of the Smith St. sewer is also in bad shape and may necessitate a new sewer in the parkway to take the place of the one under the pavement which is collapsing.

Arlington Opens Bids On New Police Car

Four bids on a new police car for Arlington Heights were opened Monday. Final action was not taken as some of the bidders preferred to inspect the cars before purchase was made. The bids are:

Price List

Aldermen Will Attend Night School

Mayor Flentie Will Act As Teacher; Pupils Study Ordinances

Members of the Arlington Heights city council agreed Monday night to attend a "night school" to be conducted every other Monday evening for the purpose of studying ordinances that are being discovered by a WPA project setup that is digging up all ordinances that have been passed by village boards since the village was incorporated.

The earlier part of the course may seem like a study of archaeology as the aldermen look over ordinances regarding the behavior of pigs, cows and horses in the confines of Arlington Heights and the rules about construction of wooden sidewalks, but Mayor Flentie and the aldermen agree with him, that there is no use having the WPA "clean house" in the dusty village records, if the board does not sit in and decide what is worth keeping and what to give to the junk man.

The first session will be held next Monday evening. Forty ordinances are ready for examination. Many of these will probably be labeled "antique" others may be revived.

The board gave its approval to the appointment of Herman Piepenbrink as official snowman of Arlington Heights. Herman did not shovel any snow last year and his work was confined solely to attaching snow plow to his equipment, just in case that a snow storm does arrive. So, if there is snow next coming winter, Arlington Heights will be prepared.

Arlington Heights will have a new vehicle tag next year. The traditional horseshoe design is discarded, but the head of a horse is being retained. The design will be oblong in shape.

The board accepted the assignment of a booth at the festival in their name, agreeing, of course, to pay the regular fee.

Alderman Studtmann strongly insisted that police service be provided 24 hours a day which started a lot of discussion. All aldermen agreed that 24 hour service was ideal, and would be simple if police officers, especially at night, did not prefer to work in pairs. Alderman Schenberger, head of the police department, stated that he would be glad to adopt any hour schedule that the aldermen could work out.

Several of the members of the board will get out their pencils in an effort to draw up such a schedule.

It was stated that officer Heinemann preferred to work nights, but wanted to be able to go home before day break. Officer Melbourne does not want to do night patrol work alone, but does want the opportunity to take his turn working days.

Bills and payroll amounted to $1400.66. There have been 36 arrests and fines totaling $139 during the latter part of August.

Health officer reported nine quarantine cases during months of July and August. There were the usual routine reports.

N-W Towns Get First Superhighway

County Board Pledges
Half of Gas Tax Funds
For 20 Years To Start
$30,000,000 Pavement

Northwest Cook county will get the first super highway out of Chicago.

Other sections of Chicago and Cook county will have plenty of time to travel over routes of similar highways in their direction. In the meantime the Cook county board of commissioners have pledged one half of their share of gas tax funds for the next twenty years in order to secure the $30,000,000 that it is expected will be needed to build the northwest super highway.

William Busse, county commissioner, who has been frequently credited with starting and fostering much of the paved road building in the northwest, has the privilege of having a part in this, the greatest of all improved road building in this part of the United States.

The county board, of which Mr. Busse has been a member a great many years, passed the necessary resolution last week, that has started the machinery in operation that means the preparation of plans and specifications for the improvement.

A special law was passed by the last state legislature authorizing such a method of financing for super highway improvement. Those plans must take definite shape by next March. The Northwest plan appears to be the only one in which there has been no opposition.

The resolution provides that the construction of the super highway begin at the outer drive in Grant Park, extending general in a northwesterly direction to suitable connections on Higgins Road, Algonquin Road, Northwest Highway, Milwaukee Ave. and other major highways.

With the comprehensive system of highways radiating from Chicago's northwest side, the proposed super highway would be used by many west and north suburbs, as well as northwest communities.

In commenting on the action of the county board, Mr. Busse said Wednesday, "It has been my privilege to have had a part in the locating and construction of many important roadways for northwest Cook county. I consider the proposed super highway as the connecting length that will bring these communities many minutes closer to the Chicago loop. This should result in increased property values in northwestern Cook county and make that section of the county still more attractive to residents."

Mr. Busse was the father of the present Northwest highway. It was Mr. Busse, who many years ago conceived the advantages of a highway paralleling the Northwest railroad. He outlined his plans to the officials of the various communities which resulted in the acquisition of right of way, the construction of road, later, its widening and the improvement of Avondale Ave.

The Schaumburg Penny club held their annual party in Mrs. Schnutes Old Kentucky Tavern on Wednesday evening. A majority of the local members were present and enjoyed an evening of entertainment and fun. Mrs. Schnute was kind enough to prepare sandwiches for everyone present.
Everyone enjoyed the refreshments and are looking forward to the next party with anticipation.
We certainly were surprised to see an issue of the school paper published by the school children of District 54, under the sponsorship of Miss Knox. The various posts of editors, etc., are held by some of the children. Miss Ruth Glade is the editor and is doing a splendid job.
Get a copy of a paper and read some of the articles. The poems are especially good, so don't forget to read that paper.

OBITUARY
Andrew Johnson died at his home in Hanover township Sunday evening.
He was born in Sweden on Jan.
20, 1858, and came to America

Suburbs Lose Fight To Halt Garbage Dumping
The city of Chicago won the first round in its effort to dispose of city garbage in the suburban area.
The village of River Forest in a concerted campaign against dumps on the western borders of that nu-municipality had obtained an injunction against one owner prohibiting from accepting garbage or any other material that would decompose.
On Friday, circuit judge George
Fred Rush set this injunction aside for a period of 60 days to give the owner and a reduction corporation leaving this land a trial period in using a bacteriological process they claimed would eliminate odors from garbage or any other material that would decompose.
This threat was the most important problem discussed by mayors and presidents of the country towns in the meeting of the Suburban Area Association on Wednesday, September 27. A large number of these municipalities are close to unincorporated areas which might be converted into garbage dumps by land owners.
Numerous residents in and around the city have protested the smoke and odors generated on existing dumps and carried into residential areas.
The ninety members of the association composed of the chief executives of towns, parks and schools outside of the city of Chicago will meet again on October 25 to map plans of a further campaign to combat this threat.

HITS FOUR CARS
Failure on the part of one man to stop for a stop sign caused a milk truck and trailer to swerve as it applied its brakes and hit four other cars. The driver of the truck,
Charles Swank, of Burlington,
Wis., southbound on Milwaukee ave., Sunday afternoon, put on his brakes when he noticed a car traveling east on Golf road had failed to stop at the stop sign. The truck and trailer swerved and struck four northbound cars. No one was seriously hurt.

Depth of Canyons
The greatest depth of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado is 5,500 feet; deepest point of Hell canyon of the Snake is 6,900 feet. The Snake canyon averages for 40 miles a depth of 5,500 feet, almost equal to the Grand canyon at its deepest spot.

It Happened Here

These are easements: To have the vivid cardinal appear on the cream retaining wall, half in, half out of the greenery; to see the veery at his bath, disturbing leaf shadows while one melancholy yellow leaf drifts down and settles beside him; the large leaves from the horse chestnut, in their autumn coloring, alighting in the plumes of the asparagus bed, looking like gay parakeets; the rustle of leaves and twigs on the attic roof and the first patter of rain; the sky pagant of the moon in its first quarter trailing red Mars and glittering Jupiter; the branch of yellow leaves before the kitchen window, filtering sunlight like the Golden Bough of legend; the beam of the Lindbergh beacon; the whitethroat calling from the ragged lot before the sun warms the white mist; yellowed verse and pressed galax leaves in the pages of an old book; Edward with his book under the reading lamp, exchanging smiles over some radio nonsense; memories of an evening long ago, the supper table laid and waiting—a chair before the east windows and the full moon standing above the distant woods, pressing like a close-circling arm around the fields of golden oat stubble and shock corn where shadows lurk and the bundles seem to frolic at war dances—footsteps on the flagged walk. "Supper ready?"

S. Amuser.

Source of Word 'Caddie'

The word caddie in golf is a corruption of the French word cadet and was first applied to golf in Edinburgh, where it is a term referring to porters and water carriers.

DOCTORS STUDY YOUR NEEDS

By C. W. Lussman of Sieburg Pharmacy

In spite of the fact that human organisms differ widely, many people still believe that because a certain medicine proved helpful with a friend, it is safe to use the same prescription, or to treat oneself in the same way. This is a fallacy.

Doctors of today, though trained in medicine, are also trained in psychology and understand the mental conflicts of their patients to an extent undreamed of in earlier days.

Your needs are individual. Consult your physician as your best friend, one with whom your confidence is sacred.

All prescriptions must be mixed of purest elements. Select your druggist with care.

Winner of Gift Box — Mrs. H. G. Day

A military band, cowboys, Indians, magicians, snake charmers, balloon sellers, black bears, horseback riders, clowns, tight-rope walkers, man-eatin' lions, and entertainers of all sizes and descriptions, not excluding a professional announcer for the show constitute but one of the many thrilling scenes of "Sunny of Sunnyside."

Mrs. Elsie Morelock and children were here from Chicago Saturday and called on old neighbors on N. Dunton ave. They are well and the boys have good employment.

Mrs. Mary Garmis who has been ill, has recovered and is able to return to her home on So. Vail ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peters, daughter, Mrs. Richardson, of Des Plaines, has been seriously ill, but has recovered enough to leave the hospital and return to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee (Powder River Jack and Little Lee) of Deer Lodge, Montana, called on Arlington Heights friends Monday evening. They are going east on business. He is an author and artist and is busy giving entertainments of western life.

October 11 and 13 are red letter days at St. Peter Lutheran school. "Sunny of Sunnyside" will be staged. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Lena Wilke is taking a little vacation at home. She had been employed in the F. Kearn home for some time before the death of Dr. Kearn and stayed on while the family was getting readjusted.

Christian Endeavor Society meets 6:30 p. m. Sunday in Presbyterian hall with program of devotions and song service. Sunday, Oct. 8, the meeting will be conducted by Donald Peters and Edward Hoffman, subject "Influencing Others to attend church." A live topic worthy of your interest. A cordial invitation is extended to you to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt P. McArdle, W. Campbell celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary Oct. 1. They entertained a company of twenty guests to dinner and a happy social time. Several of the company attended the marriage celebration nineteen years ago and all were friends of "Auld Lang Syne" and enjoyed meeting to celebrate the event.

"Sunny of Sunnyside" is more than a simple, childish opera. It's worth your while. See for yourself. Place of performance is St. Peter Lutheran school hall.

Mrs. Geo. Petersen and daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Harris, N. Dunton ave. have a mutual birthday date and were honor guests Sunday at a family dinner party given by Mrs. Reiter in Des Plaines.

Mrs. John Rodewald was hostess to the Sunshine club last week Wednesday, Oct. 11, they will meet with Mrs. Chas. Peters, N. Dunton ave.

Miss A. G. and Miss E. J. Crisler in company with relatives from Glen Ellyn, enjoyed a motor trip Saturday to points in Will and Grundy counties, making brief calls along the route.

Mrs. Mary Wood and Miss Sarah Chambers from the city, called on Mrs. McNeil and family in N. Dunton, Sunday evening.

The monthly business meeting of C. E. Society of Presbyterian church Sunday evening, 5:30 o'clock Oct. 1, was encouraging to those present. Reports and details of business were concise and prompt. Followed by regular devotional service at 6:30, led by Wm. Beckman, who gave an earnest talk on his subject interesting to his audience. At the close of meeting everyone adjourned to the dining room where refreshments were served, later they all joined in a sing fest of old songs when Mrs. Louise Peters was pressed into service at the piano as she could play from memory and they enjoyed an impromptu concert. Recently a trio of Presbyterian visitors commended the working members for their earnest efforts to uphold the C. E. Society to the standard for which they are organized and efficient work in all details to make a real C. E. society. The young people always welcome visitors and are encouraged by interest from their friends.

Garden Club To Meet October 18

The local Garden club will meet on the third Wednesday of October, in the North School at 8 p. m., instead of the usual date.

The speaker for the evening will be Mrs. L. L. Kunien from the Hill Nursery of Dundee, who will speak on "Evergreens and Their Care." She also will show slides of Evergreens. The public is cordially invited.

Men's Club Hears Sport's Review

The Methodist Men's club opened their meetings for the fall this Tuesday evening with a 6:30 dinner in the church, with Ralph Cannon, formerly of the Daily News, as editor of the column "Campus Canopy," as guest speaker.

On the eve of the world series, Mr. Cannon gave what some one can deduct on the ultimate outcome. The Yanks have it all over the Reds as far as form on the field is concerned, in Mr. Cannon's opinion, and the only thing that can beat the Yanks is a pitcher that can put the ball where he wants it every time.

If any one on the Cincinnati team can put the ball low over the inside and outside corner is Paul Derringer, and therein lies the hopes of the Reds.

Mr. Cannon, a member of the publicity committee for 1940 Olympics, which were to be held in Finland, spoke of the effect of the war on these plans. America has spent a great deal of money in preparation and Finland a small country not much larger than Chicago and its suburbs, has spent $10,000,000, only to have the war call a halt to all plans.

With college football taking the spotlight in sports, Mr. Cannon predicts that the title rests between Purdue, Northwestern and Indiana.

Within a year or two Iowa will be a serious contender, for their team is showing great improvement.

At the close of Mr. Cannon's talk he answered a great many questions in the field of sports.

At the business meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Jack Everett; vice president, Mr. Ray Hayes; secretary, treasurer, Mr. Charles McElhose.

Junior Women's Club Plan Business Meeting

The Junior Woman's club will hold a business meeting on October 9 in the club room, to complete plans for the benefit card party. Plan to attend.

Even Cotton Thrives In Arlington Heights

When the young son of Mr. James McElhose brought home from school a seed from a cotton plant last year, Mr. McElhose planted it, perhaps more out of curiosity than anything else, but to his surprise he now has a full grown cotton plant with two cotton bolls already ripened and several more about to burst. The plant stands about two feet in height and seems extremely hardy. Mr. McElhose planted the seed in his greenhouse in February, and in the spring transplanted it into the garden, where it has thrived. It is again in a pot, and is one of the interesting exhibits at the Arlington Heights Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe and family drove to Woodstock Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Monroe's parents.

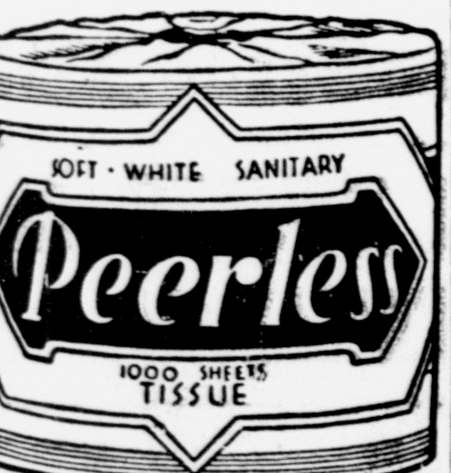

Mr. and Mrs. Cuscaden have moved from No. Belmont ave. to a home in Stonegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Helfers attended the wedding and reception of Mr. David Nelson and Miss Elizabeth Green of Chicago, Saturday night.

Mrs. Stanley Myres was hostess to her bridge club for dessert and cards Monday afternoon. High honors were won by Mrs. N. K. Barr and Mrs. Ott.

Juniors To Give Benefit For Infant Welfare

A benefit card party is to be given for the Arlington Heights Infant Welfare on the evening of October 16, at the Field House.

The Junior Woman's club are the sponsors of this project, and are busy completing plans and selling tickets for this affair.

During the evening a style show will be presented by Miss Wilke of the Emerald Shop, with the members of the club serving as models. Warsons and Foley Beauty Shops are to feature hair styling of the models. Table prizes will be awarded, and there will be other prizes and refreshments to be served.

Tickets are available from any member of the club at 40c each. Miss Mamie Scolaro is chairman of the party, Miss Jane Thorson and Miss Laveta Baxter have charge of tickets, and Miss Frances Moore and Miss Mildred Russell are in charge of refreshments.

O. E. S. Notes

Saturday evening, Sept. 23, the worthy matron, Lydia Mae Hausam and the worthy patron, Frank E. Hausam, entertained the officers of the local chapter at their home.

The evening was enjoyed playing pinocle and bridge whist, and everyone enjoyed the happy hours. A delightful midnight supper was served and after a pleasant time visiting, each officer was presented with a beautiful "pin-up" lamp.

More light is always an acceptable gift and coming from our worthy matron and worthy patron, will ever keep alight the friendships made during this official year.

Huge Naval Project At Site of Mrs. Briggs' Stopover In Hawaii

Just a year ago this month Mrs. Fayette Briggs spent a restful two weeks on the shores of peaceful Kaneohe Bay in the Hawaiian Islands, which is now the scene of one of the greatest naval projects in the history of our country. The United States Navy has already started on a $5,800,000 air base, on a 550 acre site which provides for dredging of channels, seaplane landing, and take off areas, and construction of quarters and barracks for more than 1,000 officers and men, five sea plane runways and a series of hangars. This is part of a $13,554,000 naval contract for air base construction at various strategic points in the Pacific.

Lutheran Babies Are Baptized

Lyrical Recital Presented At Woman's Club

Mrs. Dorothy Barr Agne, contralto, the guest artist for the opening meeting of the Arlington Heights Woman's Club, which was held on Wednesday afternoon in the Field House, presented a most delightful program, of lyrics of famous poets in characteristic song settings, by well known composers.

Her lyrical recital included the following poems of Rabindranath Tagore set to music, "Do Not Go Without Asking My Leave," "Sleep That Hets on Babies Eyes," "May Night," "Peace" and "Stray Birds of the Summer."

In her second group Mrs. Agne sang a group of poems of Sara Teasdale, "Flames," "I Would Live In Your Love," "The Look," "I Shall Not Care," "The Fairy Forest," whose musical setting was composed by Mrs. Agnes' accompanist Delbert Chute, a faculty member of the Chicago Conservatory of Music, in this group also were "Your Kiss" and "Tonight."

For her last group Mrs. Agne chose the poems of the modern poet, Edna St. Vincent Millay, including, "My Candle," "Vanished Summer," "From a Very Little Spring," "God's World," and "The Little Tavern."

Mrs. Agne's warm contralto voice and her charming interpretations were a delight to the large group who attended this opening meeting. Mrs. Agne is manager of the North Shore Branch of the Chicago Conservatory of Music.

During the business meeting 32 new members were welcomed into the club by the membership chairman, Mrs. C. A. Ott.

Celebrates Birthday

Lowell Lester Dobbins, 2 S. Vail ave., celebrated his second birthday Tuesday by entertaining his little cousin and friends in the afternoon. In the evening the "grown ups" dropped in to wish Lowell a "happy birthday." Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Giss, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foote of Libertyville called on the Lester Dobbins family Monday night, to wish Lowell a happy birthday.

Prospect Heights

Nan Rauen, Editor.

During the October moving season, a number of new families moved into their new homes in Prospect Heights, among them were Mr. and Mrs. Clement W. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwennsen, Sargeant and Mrs. Alvin Ayers, all on Clarendon st.; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Rowader, on McDonald rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Feavey, Wheeling rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Ball, Olive st.; Mr. and Mrs. William Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Jolley, on Marion ave. and Mr. and Mrs. William Paulson on Willow rd.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Glave are now occupying the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Steele, who found it necessary on account of sickness to move back to Chicago.

Since the Brainard family moved into Park Ridge, the Moore Acre place is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tidd.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kalteux and their baby daughter, Leah, of Cary, Illinois, are occupying the flat at the corner of Elmhurst and McDonald rd. Mrs. Kalteux is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamb of the service station.

We extend a hearty welcome to all of the new families and hope that they will derive much pleasure out of their new homes, and in our community.

Mr. Smith, of Smith & Dawson, is getting started on the lake which is to be made in the park district at some future date, and at this time would like to let the folks in the community know that if any one is interested in getting some nice black dirt, it can be had for the hauling only, which will be $5.00 for a load of 5 to 6 yards.

Anyone desiring black dirt can leave their orders at the service station. If any further information is desired, Mr. Smith will be glad to take care of that also.

Monday evening Jim and Lorene Neagles drove into Chicago to meet Jim's dad and mother from St. Louis, Missouri, who expect to stay a couple of weeks visiting their family here and at Waukegan.

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robertson attended the wedding of Miss Vivian Laird of Des Plaines, to Roy Palmer of Chicago, at the Congregational church in Des Plaines. They attended the reception immediately following the ceremony which was held at the hostess room in Des Plaines.

Mrs. Anne Nielsen was very pleasantly surprised last Wednesday, when after receiving a call to come to work one hour earlier than usual, she was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers and a 30 year service pin, having been with the Telephone Co. that long. Anne had completely forgotten the exact date, but her co-workers found out about it and had the little surprise for Anne. The girls expect to take Anne out to dinner also, but that will have to wait until next week when Anne will return to work at her regular hours.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Homer Torreyson entertained a number of former teachers of Adams branch of Lane Tech high school, at an outdoor supper. The men folks who played cards and the ladies who talked and visited after dinner, were Mr. Smiley, Mr. and Mrs. Noel, Mrs. Wickhorst of Maywood, Miss Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Cooker, Mr. and Mrs. Neuman, and three children, all of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Urbaneck of Evanston; Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Ravine Park; Mr. and Mrs. Savane of Winnetka, Ill.; also Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman of Oak Park, Ill. The folks enjoyed a very pleasant evening outdoors since the weather and company was ideal for just such an affair.

Mr. Wm. Schettko, Sr., visited his daughter and son-in-law, Emma and Dan Robertson, accompanied by his son, Wm. Jr., on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kirt of Mt. Prospect also visited the Robertsons Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Manskey of Chicago. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Steinert, of Milwaukee, Wis., dropped in on Robertsons for a short visit.

We regret to report that Mrs. Tom Underwood has been very sick for the past two weeks, and although she is to be confined to bed for some time yet, we certainly wish her the best of luck and a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Allord is getting along very nicely after her siege of sickness and trip to the hospital and we hope she will continue on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Kelsey entertained the bridge club last Thursday. The usual ladies, Mesdames Torreyson, Johnson and Sobwick attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ledyard and daughter, Charlene were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Forrey of Sycamore, Illinois on Sunday. The folks enjoyed a very pleasant day.

The Ledyards drove down to Evergreen Park and enjoyed lunch with Ruth's sister, Mrs. Charles Platt on Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson entertained the South Side Sewing Circle on Tuesday.

Smith & Dawson bowling team composed of Ed. Sobwick, John Little, Lou Jennrich and Clarence Johnson have joined the Des Plaines Major League. The team bowls every Tuesday evening in the bowling alley in Des Plaines across from the Ford agency, starting about 9:00 p. m.

The Royal Blue Store is already having an addition built on in the back, in order to take care of a large cooling system and refrigerator.

Those who are interested in basketball will be glad to know that the Smith & Dawson team is now being organized and the games will start in about 30 days. Watch the paper for the definite date.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rauen visited the Heick family in McHenry on Sunday. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Henry Kaiser of Chicago and a friend drove out to visit with Mrs. Tweedie and Mrs. Rauen.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Shepherd, is the loss of Mr. Shepherd's mother, who passed to the Great Beyond a short time ago.

We regret that Mr. Shepherd's father who is at present with the folks out here, has been very sick, and we wish him the very best of good wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Freeman and two children visited at the Danielson home on Sunday. Mr. Freeman is a brother of V's.

Bridal Shower for Miss Ciel Brehm

Miss Ciel Brehm was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Leroy Boeger Monday evening in honor of her approaching marriage on Saturday, Oct. 7, to Mr. George May of Melrose Park. After a social evening refreshments were served by the hostesses, Miss Helen Boeger and Miss Mildred Wilke.

Miss Virginia Gieske, beauty operator at Watson's Beauty Shop, is in the city this week in her home in Wheeling.

Mrs. V. I. Pecchia is attending meetings in connection with her work in the District Legion Auxiliary at the Sherman hotel this week.

Food Sales Here

Return $34,710

In Hidden Taxes

Families in Arlington Heights pay an estimated $34,710 in hidden taxes annually through their purchases of food, a National Consumers Tax Commission survey showed this week.

"Nearly eight per cent of the total food bill represents shifted taxes buried in the price of every purchase," the report stated. "These unseen levies, for example, take 11 per cent of butter costs, 6 1/2 per cent of bread costs, 10 1/2 per cent of sliced bacon and 14 1/2 per cent of the cost of coffee."

The report was made public through Mrs. Franklin M. Miller, of Chicago, national committee member, who leads NCTC study groups in about 135 communities in the educational crusade against "unnecessary consumer-penalizing taxes." The report added: "Chief offenders, and those that fall most heavily on lower income families, are hidden taxes. These are levied originally against the producer, manufacturer, shipper and distributor. Unable to absorb the load, each must pass on a share of its taxes and the consumer ultimately pays them, usually without knowing it."

The food tax estimate was computed from NCTC averages based on last available U. S. Bureau of the Census figures, which placed 1935 food sales in Arlington Heights at $445,000. Government estimates of total sales in the country last year approximate the total in the 1935 study, the NCTC said.

Is Your Child HANDICAPPED?

Of every ten children classified at school as backward, five are found to have defective vision. Poor grades, a dislike of school, headaches, a cross disposition, all are the direct result of deficiencies of eyesight. An unfortunate thing about defective vision is that it is often impossible to detect without a thorough examination. A fortunate thing is that almost every case can be easily corrected with a proper fitting of glasses. Your child deserves perfect vision. Have his, or her, eyes examined before school starts.

We laid a Flock of Millions on the line!

In every 1940 Buick you get the skilled engineering and sturdy quality traditional to Buick—enriched by all the extra value which General Motors science and Buick workmanship can provide

No, you couldn't do what we wanted to do, and do it cheap.

You couldn't set out to top the field, focusing on how much you could put in rather than take out—and with accustomed equipment keep costs down.

You couldn't micro-balance engines, heavy-up frames and running gear, strengthen bodies, enrich upholstery and fittings, improve performance, better the value per inch, per pound and per dollar—and do it with last year's methods.

So we faced it, re-tooled and renewed our vast modern plant all over again—put eight million new dollars on the line; the Buick line for 1940.

What did we get for it? Rather ask, what do you get? Listen.

You get a big beautiful brawny car styled to knock your eye out—the fashion pattern for them all next year, just look around and see.

You get a car that positively glitters in its brilliance of action, modern as television in the wondrous way it does things.

You get a marvelously engineered chassis, keeled like a battleship with its torque-tube backbone.

You get for your command that surging, soaring, millrace power of the matchless Dynaflex engine, now electrically balanced after assembly to micropoised perfection!

You get 72 new features, and more. You get pride, joy, satisfaction and thrill—for here you get Buick at its unbeatable best.

first time in her screen career.

Marsha Hunt, who also seemed doomed to ingenuities, breaks forth with a dramatic characterization of a perennial prom girl, who, faced with the loss of her popularity, prefers suicide to humiliation. Lovely Joan Bennett and handsome Louis Hayward are romantically teamed for the first time in the tense and thrilling story of "The Man in the Iron Mask," the new Edward Small romantic drama of the reign of Louis XIV of France, which is scheduled for showing at the Catlow Theatre on Sunday and Monday. Directed by James Whale, this new production features in its supporting cast such top-notch players as Warren William, Joseph Schildkraut, Alan Hale, Miles Mander, Bert Rozen, Walter Kingsford, Marian Martin, Montagu Love and Doris Kenyon.

The story of "The Man in the Iron Mask" is based on the novel by Alexander Dumas and dramatizes the enmity and hatred between King Louis XIV of France and his twin brother, Philippe. Until he is about to execute his own brother for treason, the cruel monarch is unaware that he has a twin. Learning the news, he fears that he decides to put Philippe out of the way for good. He has him encased in the monstrous iron mask, one of the grimmest forms of torture used in those gory days.

The film brings back to the screen the swashbuckling, fearless Musketeers and introduces several scenes of fencing and swordplay. Portraying the Musketeers are Warren William, Alan Hale and Miles Mander, while Louis' crafty minister is portrayed by Joseph Schildkraut. Miss Bennett, still a beautiful brunette, plays the role of Maria Theresa of Spain, who is engaged to marry the arrogant Louis.

Andy Hardy Sunday
Attraction At Des Plaines

Heading the double feature attraction opening Sunday at the Des Plaines Theatre is Andy Hardy (Mickey Rooney) in the latest in his series of hilarious escapades, this one titled: "Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever." With Mickey Rooney in the cast are the rest of the family, Lewis Stone, Cecilia Parker and Fay Holden. To make the program 100 per cent entertainment, "Good Girls Go To Paris" completes the double feature program. Melvyn Douglas and Joan Blondell are co-starred in the latter film.

"Indianapolis Speedway" and "Grand Jury Secrets" are the two current attractions at Des Plaines, closing a three day run on Saturday night. Stars of "Indianapolis Speedway" are Ann (Oomph Girl) Sheridan, Pat O'Brien and Joan Payne. Featured in the latter of the two action-packed pictures are Gail Patrick and John Howard. An added feature of the Friday and Saturday performances is the showing of the very latest Paramount newscell.

'Dead End' Kids Starred
At Palatine Theater

"Hell's Kitchen," the Warner Bros. drama at the Palatine Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, presents the "Dead End" Kids in a brand-new type of role. The "angels with dirty faces" have all the sympathy on their sides in this one, for they are shown as the brutally treated inmates of a so-called shelter for boys. How they reform the reform school and, incidentally, an exgangster as well, forms the novel plot of "Hell's Kitchen."

"It is one of those unexpectedly good movies that appears unheralded and unsung," says Mae Tinee in the Chicago Tribune. "A movie with a different story, with wallowing fine situations and dialog. A picture that wears its moral casually because so surely. A picture that boasts as acting from a wizard. A 'programmer,' but WHAT a programmer!"

Co-featured with "Hell's Kitchen" is the "Story of Vernon and Irene Castle." After first achieving overnight success in their initial film together, "Flying Down to Rio," Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers have co-starred in eight successive musical productions. Their latest—and their most distinguished vehicle—is "The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle," which RKO Radio has brought to the screen based on the career of the internationally famous dancing team of pre-War days.

1940 Ford V-8
Has Many New Refinements

Enriched by refinements made possible by the manufacture under a single unified management of five cars which virtually bracket the motor car market, the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8 cars for 1940, announced today, present notable advances in styling, comfort, convenience and safety.

The new cars are big, substantial and powerful in appearance. Body lines are pleasingly streamlined. Front end designs are distinctly modern, with low radiator grilles, long hoods and deeply rounded fenders. The trimly tailored interiors are big and roomy, with plenty of seat room, leg room, elbow room and shoulder room.

Two V-8 engines are available, an 85 horsepower engine in the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8, with a 60 horsepower engine optional in the Ford V-8.

Four Ford V-8 and five deluxe body types comprise the two lines. A new business coupe as well as a Fordor sedan, Tudor sedan and coupe are available in both. There is also a deluxe convertible club coupe with automatic top as standard equipment. Three color choices are available in the Ford V-8, six in the deluxe line.

An important new feature of the cars is a finger-tip gearshift mounted on the steering column under the two-spoke steering wheel. This provides increased room for driver and passengers in the front compartment. There is also a new sealed-beam headlamps are used on all types, providing greatly increased driving vision at night.

On the 85 horsepower cars, an improved spring suspension with a longer, more flexible front spring, and a torsion bar ride-stabilizer provide an exceptionally comfortable steady ride. The ride-stabilizer also contributes to firmer, easier steering. Front and rear springs of deluxe cars are equipped with metal covers. Large double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers with self-sealing construction are fitted on all cars.

Comfort features are emphasized throughout the design. Seats are built for restful riding. Front seat backs are of new resilient type. Cushions have a new "floating" edge. Driver's seats are adjustable two ways—they rise as they are moved forward. Bodies are scientifically soundproofed, shutting out road noises. An "easy-shift" transmission, permitting speeds to be changed quietly; new design curved disc wheels and improved drums for the highly effective, quick-stopping hydraulic brakes also contribute to quietness.

Family Dies

Funeral services for George F. Stanger, whose father walked from Warren, Pa., to Wheeling, Ill., in 1832 to establish residence as the first German in the Wheeling area, were held Wednesday afternoon from the Presbyterian church in Deerfield.

Mr. Stanger, 80 years old, died Monday at his home in Deerfield. A retired employee of the North Shore Gas company, he was the son of Daniel Stanger, a pioneer settler from Germany.

George Stanger was one of 11 children. He married Ida Rockenbach, member of another pioneer family, and the couple moved to Deerfield in 1907. They celebrated their golden wedding on Dec. 27, 1933.

Surviving are the widow, a daughter, two sons, a sister and a brother.

EAST MAINE

A group of relatives and a few friends of Mrs. Adolph Moeller dropped in on her the evening of September 27, to help her celebrate her birthday.

Mrs. Anna Jensen is on this week's sick list, suffering from a heart ailment.

An estimated crowd of 11,000 gathered at the stockyards amphitheater in Chicago last Sunday for the second annual Lutheran Hour rally and enjoyed to the full the inspiring program that was presented. Dr. Walter A. Maier, dynamic as ever, gave a soul stirring address and the mass singing by the thousands in the children's and adults' choirs was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the vast throng. Professor Louis Menking of Luther Institute announced that when the seventh Lutheran Hour broadcast goes on the air on Sunday, October 29, it will be over a nation-wide hook-up of 82 stations, sixteen having been added to last year's hook-up. Dr. Maier will be the speaker and the time will be 3:30 p. m. with station WCFL, the Chicago outlet.

East Maine closed their 1939 baseball season with one of the games of the year when an unearned run gave their opponents the Grayland's a 1 to 0 victory. The game was a scoreless tie until the eighth when East Maine's pitcher made the error which cost his team the game. East Maine had one hit and their hosts had four. The boys will be packing their uniforms and diamond equipment away until next year but their season is not to be declared officially closed until after next Saturday, October 14, when they are running their annual dance at Mueller's hall in Morton Grove. They ask all their friends to come out and have a good time. Ed Maruska's band will play.

A fine crowd attended the Harvest festival at St. Matthew's Lutheran school last Sunday sponsored by the congregation. Hamburgers, hot-dogs, coffee, ice cream and cake were the evening's menu after which bingo was played until time for the big auction of articles placed on display. And what an assortment there was, all kinds of vegetables and fruits in season and even live poultry. Fred Beto was the auctioneer and did a splendid job as always, disposing of everything on hand.

One schoolroom was practically too small to hold all who came to attend the first business meeting of the East Maine P.T.A. Monday evening. Mrs. Joe Ruesch presided. Mrs. John Moss was elected to serve as secretary replacing Mrs. Currian who was unable to take care of the duties connected with the office. Superintendent Callahan was present and gave an interesting address. Dick Wilson, accordionist delighted with several well rendered selections, Nurse Louise Menard talked on the "Home Making Course" for adults which will be instituted as soon as all arrangements can be completed. It is to be held at the school house on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 and anyone interested in attending may get in touch with any P.T.A. members. Mr. J. K. White gave an interesting talk on Visual Education demonstrating the slide projector used in connection therewith and explaining how it is used. Sandwiches and coffee were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

As soon as accommodations can be completed a third teacher will be added to the teaching staff at the East Maine public school. A room is being fixed in the basement of the school with a new floor, indirect lighting and all else necessary to arrange a temporary room that will be both comfortable and suitable until other definite arrangements can be made. As matters now stand there are too many pupils for two teachers to handle with satisfactory results.

St. Matthew's Ladies' Aid invite their many friends to their fall bunc party to be held at the school hall Friday evening, October 13, at 8 p. m.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Hans Schmidt is convalescing satisfactorily following a major operation at the Highland Park hospital.

The Child Health Conference for October is scheduled for next Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 11, from 1 to 3 o'clock. Dr. J. Forbrich is the new physician in charge of the conference. Mothers of small children are urged to bring them to the conference which is held in the school gym, under the direction of the Rural Public Health Dept. of Cook county.

Miss Bertha Keith was hostess to her three fellow teachers of Wheeling school, and the Misses Catherine and Marie Tully in a dinner party at the Tally-Ho at Park Ridge last week Tuesday evening.

Last Friday was election day at the Wheeling public school when the Achievement club elected their officers for the school term. In keeping with the course of study in civics "Know your town" the election was conducted as far as possible like a regular village election. Mr. Robert Utpal was present to instruct the judges and clerks and generally supervise the election. The newly elected officers are: President, Edward C. Welfin; vice president, Michael Weigand; secretary, Laverne Moeller; treasurer, Margaret Schmidt. This week the school is observing fire-prevention week. Fire drills are being held and time is being given to talks and discussions of ways to prevent fires.

The John Meyer family of Elmhurst, visited their parents here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gemmill are spending this week supervising work on a cabin on their lake property in northern Wisconsin.

The Edward Gieseke family were called to attend a sad funeral of a relative in Chicago on Saturday. Miss Martha Pooch, the 21 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pooch, fell when a banister gave way and suffered a broken neck which resulted in death. The Poochs formerly lived in Wheeling on the farm which is now Zesky's subdivision. This is the second tragic death in their family since leaving Wheeling, the elder son, Rudolph, having been killed in a street car accident some years ago. We are very sorry to learn of this second tragic bereavement.

The Presbyterian church was filled at both morning and evening services on Sunday as the first of the special 75th anniversary services were held. The church, which has been redecorated inside and out, was further decorated with large baskets of beautiful flowers offering their silent testimony to the beauty and joy of Christian worship. Inspirational messages were brought by Rev. O. Oltmans, former pastor, and Rev. Howard Johnston, D.D., moderator of Chicago Presbytery. Rev. H. J. Wiegand, former pastor, brought greetings and contributed to the musical part of the service. Mrs. Carl Schuessler of Chicago was guest soloist and the choir also took special part. Members of the congregation included both present and former members and mingled emotions prevailed in the joy of the Christian Faith and the meeting of old friends and sorrow in the absence of those who have gone on before. The final anniversary service will be held next Sunday, Oct. 8, at 10:55. Wheeling church was first organized as a German Evangelical United Reformed and Lutheran church on May 1, 1864, and re-organized as Zion German Presbyterian church on November 2, 1864, which it has remained with the exception of dropping the German language.

The John Nielsen family enjoyed a week-end trip to Springfield. Among other places of interest which they visited was Lincoln's Tomb.

Wheeling Chapter O. E. S. observed Advance Officer's Night at their meeting last week. The meeting was conducted in a very impressive manner with a good attendance of members and visitors present. The chapter will hold a public card party at the River-side Inn on Friday evening, Oct. 13. See posters for further details.

When the frost is in the air and the evenings grow longer, card playing again becomes a popular pastime. On Friday evening, Oct. 27, the Wheeling Camp R. N. A. are sponsoring a public card party in the Wheeling Community gym.

The Anabelle family of Morse ave. moved away from Wheeling this past week.

The J. Craig and J. Nielsen families took advantage of the balmy weather on Tuesday evening to enjoy a weenie roast in the Forest Preserve.

Wheeling Fire department was called to Horatio Gardens on Sunday noon, when a home was destroyed by fire apparently caused by a defective oil burner.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Sunday, October 8.

A. & P. Stores Are Celebrating 80th Birthday

Celebrating its 80th birthday, the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company announced today a special anniversary this week in all its stores and super-markets in this area. Particularly attractive prices on all items have been arranged for the celebration period, the company said.

Pioneer in modern methods of mass distribution the A & P has been the leader in developing Twentieth Century techniques for distributing quality food at low prices. From the birth of the organization just before the Civil War, its main objective has been to reduce consumer costs by eliminating unnecessary steps in distribution.

The A & P chain was established in 1859, when George Huntington Hartford, a tall bearded young man from Maine, opened the doors of his first red-fronted store in Vesey st., in New York City. Today the stores are familiar sights throughout the country and play an important part in the daily lives of millions of farmers, producers and consumers.

Based on a policy of cutting operating costs and passing the savings to the consumer, the first store enjoyed an immediate success. At that time tea was selling for $1 per pound, but young Hartford purchased the entire cargo of one ship and cut the price to 39 cents a pound.

Adherence to the policy of economy, developed by the elimination of all in-between costs, stimulated public demand for additional stores, which were opened in steadily increasing numbers. In the first ten years Hartford opened ten stores and by 1874 he was operating 25 units. Today that first red-front store of Hartford's has grown into the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, operating thousands of units in 39 states and the District of Columbia.

The A & P alone pays salaries to 85,000 employees, provides the nation's farmers with what they term "an indispensable market for crops and produce." It contributes to industry by the purchase of more than $500,000,000 worth of merchandise from manufacturers and canners a year. Company records show that housewives purchase nearly a billion dollars worth of groceries annually from its stores, at savings of from eight to ten per cent and more.

Mac Says

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

Last week we got off to a poor start picking winners but Arlington got off to a splendid start in the conference race so we did not mind missing in their case. This week we hope to boost our percentage and for your consideration submit the following selections:

1. Arlington to trip Lake Forest by a close margin.
2. Crystal Lake to come back successfully against Niles.
3. Leyden to win number two at Woodstock's expense.
4. Libertyville to trim Warren.
5. Berrington looks better than Northbrook but will have a battle.
6. St. Marys will be much too tough for Grant.

Might Revise Predictions

On the basis of the first round of games our predictions of two weeks ago do not look any better than Grant Butler's West Suburban picks. Crystal Lake didn't look very potent in their 12-6 defeat at Arlington but that powerful Cardinal line kept the 12-6ers on the defensive so much they did not dare open up with aerials until the game was lost. The Lakers do not have the reserve strength, a department in which Grose's Arlington team excels. We still think Crystal Lake will lose a few ball games. Right now it looks like Arlington all the way with their toughest obstacles by the name of Lake Forest and Libertyville to be met the next two Saturdays.

Arlington Has Tough Line

That Cardinal forward wall may spell another Arlington championship. We had an idea it would be good but it is better than we expected. All Arlington lacks is a good big boy to hit the line. At that those two "K" backs, Koening and Koelling, can certainly drive for little fellows. They were mighty tough for Crystal Lake to bring down. Grose has a pair of swell tackles in Rosch and Milligan and we were especially impressed by the fine defensive playing of Henken at end. Arlington was plenty good Saturday, but they will need to be just as good in every game in order to come out on top for everyone will be priming to lick them and this new Northeast conference has no soft spots if we are any judge.

Hurt by Injuries

Three teams at least have already felt the effect of that old injury bugaboo, the nightmare of football coaches. Warren's limited squad has met the severest setback. Anderson, veteran pass receiver and punter, was out of the Leyden game and may miss the Libertyville tilt due to a head injury which required six stitches. Andy was moving chairs into the school attic as part of his NYA job and one fell on his head. To make matters worse Kelton lost Zelenko, his passer, as a result of a physical examination which showed leakage of the heart.

Ford Out for Season

Crystal Lake was without the services of big 180 pounds Jim Davis, veteran tackle, in their game at Arlington. Injury in the Belvidere contest put him on the sidelines and hurt the Tigers where they could least afford it. Niles lost their star left halfback, Ford, for the rest of the season with a cracked collar bone suffered in Friday's game. It is a tough blow for Niles. Injuries add to the uncertainty of football and it is due to this that reserve strength counts for so much in the grid iron sport.

Plenty of Penalties

We do not have the statistics at our command, but it is our guess that Arlington was penalized more yards in Saturday's game with Crystal Lake than the Lakers were themselves able to gain on running plays. The opening game for a Heights team that was overexposed and playing hard coupled with very strict officiating by three competent men combined to pile up the penalties.

Enlarge High School

When a PWA grant for a high school annex fell through last spring at Woodstock the people of the town voted $200,000 to build and went ahead on their own. The new addition will be ready for occupancy after Christmas and will include, in addition to class rooms, cafeteria, and music rooms, a swimming pool 72 by 40 feet and a large gymnasium.

Also Misses Them

We understand that Pat Harmon, Champaign sports authority, who left Urbana as one of the strongest teams in the state. Then York beat Urbana 14-0 followed by a 59-0 defeat of York by Oak Park. All this counts up to two things. If you want to keep or make a reputation as a smart fellow keep away from sports forecasting. The other conclusion is that Oak Park is mighty good again this season.

Couch At Marquette

Budurans, star center of the Waukegan Moose cage five of last year and former Marquette star has been named assistant coach at his alma mater. Graft of Elgin, captain of the 1938-39 Marquette five will stay on as Frosh cage coach.

Looking for Games

Hubert Pearce, basketball coach of the new Zion-Benton Township High School, which opened Monday, is looking for games to complete a cage schedule for the new school. Pearce hails from Johnson City where he was a member of the state championship high school team of 1929. In his five years of coaching at Zion-Benton and Petersburg, Illinois, Pearce turned out two district and two regional winners.

A Queer Arrangement

The Northeast Conference opens its basketball schedule November 28 while the Northwest Conference, also having eight members of whom but three play football, starts its league schedule December 8. It would seem reasonable to expect the reverse to be true but it isn't. It is all because the new league believes in a complete home and home scheduling as the best way of arriving at the decision of who is champ. The Northwest day.

Cards Smash Crystal Lake By 12-6 Score

Heavy Line Stops Pupils' Passing Star

Quite a notable collection of nearby high school football coaches were the guests of Arlington last Saturday. They had come to witness the much talked of game between Arlington and Crystal Lake. It turned out to be a well played contest for so early in the season, but it is doubtful if those coaches particularly enjoyed the spectacle. The reason for this was a convincing 12-6 defeat handed the Pupils' men by the Green "Cardinals." Both teams went into the game well keyed up for a hard fight and it turned out to be just that. Yet the manner in which Arlington suppressed practically all of the Crystal Lake offense, and the prospective power the Cardinals displayed marked them as a team to be feared for the rest of the season. Consequently the long faces of the Northeast conference coaches.

It was plain to be seen that in team's capacities are high and quite as surely their success will be determined by their luck in avoiding injury, coupled with the mental attitude of the squad in the coming games.

One Long Pass in the Very Closing Minute of Play, Crystal Lake Never Threatened. In fact the only time other than this that they were over the middle of the field was for a brief moment in the second quarter. This time they got over to about the 45 yard line and were promptly pushed back into their own territory.

On several occasions it looked as though Arlington would get started. Either their own mis-punt or penalties put a damper on these attempts. It was not until early in the last quarter that the Cardinals pulled themselves together and made a determined goal line bid. Then starting in mid-field, the plowed and crashed their way gradually toward anti-line they finally crossed the coveted goal line. Koelling had the honor of being the first Cardinal to acquire a touch down for the season when he ran off his right end for six yards and six points.

Milligan then got off the best of three excellent kickoffs and the Lakers were stopped on their yard line. Forced to punt, they could only boot the ball out to thirty from which Arlington again plowed over to make the score 12-0. Hull lugging the ball and a pair of Crystal Lake tacklers the last couple of yards.

Again as on several previous occasions, Crystal Lake resorted to passes in a vain attempt to pull the game out. Two passes put them on the fifty yard marker from which their stellar passer, Osman, chucked one to Rafferty, right end forty yards over the Arlington backs. He had only to run ten additional yards to get the only score for the visitors. There was only time for the kickoff before the game ended. Incidentally the kickoff was a neat bit of work, being a short one back by Crystal Lake and recovered by them. Their strategy availed them nothing for the game ended before they could put the ball in play.

Crystal Lake made an excellent stand against the surge of the fighting Cardinals. They begrudged each precious yard and for the most part the Arlington gains were all of the short variety, ceiling off gains of 23 and 15 yards, and Hull two of ten and eleven. Other than this they couldn't pile the yardage up into double digits.

Line Piles Up Offense

Arlington's big line was the prime factor in the game. They were constantly piling up Crystal Lake's offensive attempts. Five first downs were made against Arlington, one by passes, two by penalties, and two by rushing. On the other hand all of Arlington's nine first downs were by the ground route. Picking the stars of the game would be exceedingly hard yet the palm, if any would have to be handed, first to Milligan and then the two ends, Henken and Thoman, plus Koelling, Koening and Hull in the backfield and Lemke and Busse in the line.

Milligan, Busse and Thoman simply smared everything thrown their way. On top of this Milligan was rushing every pass and very nearly blocked two or three of their punts. Bublitz starting fullback is undoubtedly Arlington's best kicker and passer.

Hull didn't show the speed of his sophomore year, but had added drive and for the first time in his life, blocked, and blocked well. The pair of 145 pound half backs Koelling and Koening, not only drive, but speed and shiftness as well. Garms playing right half Warren's field goal, which put Coach Kelton's club in the lead, was booted by Ken Jermachowicz, left tackle, from the 26-yard line.

Visitors Score Safety

The visitors scored in the first period on a safety, the result of a sweeping end run in which the runner was thrown behind the goal line. The safety also was made by McNeerney.

Both Herman, left half, and McCaughey, center, played great ball for the Blue Devils. Qolunga of Leyden suffered a dislocated hip in the game and had to be removed to St. Therese hospital in Waukegan.

Wildcats Maintain Winning Ways; Defeat Proviso Juniors, 13-6

Libertyville copped their second straight victory Saturday when the Proviso junior varsity fell before the Wildcats 13-6. The game was the first of the season on the Libertyville gridiron.

The Wildcats scored both their touchdowns on passes. The first was a toss from Gossell to Miller in the opening quarter. Gossell scored the extra point on a place kick. The other Libertyville score came in the final period on an aerial from Gossell to quarterback Jaeger. The score for the visiting team came in the third period on an end around play.

The teams were very evenly matched and it was a hard fought battle all the way. Libertyville appeared to have a long way yet to go in preparation for such opponents as Arlington who will be met at the Heights a week from Saturday.

Barrington Favored To Top Northwest Title; Beats New Trier Reserves

Barrington appeared to be a greatly improved eleven last Saturday as the Bronchos defeated the New Trier reserves 7-0. The Clark coached team was up against a much tougher opponent than the Elgin team which tied the Bronchos the previous week.

Saturday's showing makes Barrington the favorite to defeat Northbrook in the opening Northwest conference game this coming Saturday. Northbrook's only endeavor to date has been a 13-0 victory over the Niles reserves. Barrington will have at least a 10 to 15 pound weight advantage per man in Saturday's game.

Brochons Favored

Since Grant's poor showing in games at Warren and McHenry, Barrington looms as the best out of the three playing football in the Northwest league. Grant's St. Marys of Woodstock Saturday and will no doubt have even harder going than at McHenry. St. Marys has won three games in a row defeating their Alumni and Elkhorn and Whitewater, Wisconsin. The latter schools were whalloped 19-0 and 13-0.

showed up quite well for his first game and may become a fixture at that spot. Considering that he has had only a part of a season on the second team, he did exceptionally well. Rosch and Dolinjak at left guard and tackle are newcomers to varsity play, but able ones.

Deserves Share Victory

Again it was the Arlington reserves that had a big share in the victory. These were Rodgers, Heidenmann, Remus, Goodke, Heller, Heinze, Folkman, and Hull.

For Crystal Lake outstanding men were McCausland and Rafferty, ends, Rockenbach at tackle and Osman and Hansen backs. Lineup and Summary:
Arlington (12) — Henken, LE; Rosch, Roche, LT; Rodgers, Dolinjak, LG; Lemke, Heidenmann, C; Busse, Remus, RG; Milligan, Goodke, RT; Thoman, Heller, RE; Koelling, Heinze, Q; Koening, Folkman, H; Garms, RH; Bublitz, Hull, F. Crystal Lake (6) — McCausland, LE; Rund, LT; Frisch, LG; Cosallo, C; Abbott, RG; Rockenbach, RT; Rafferty, RE; Osman, Q; Rehberger, LH; Smith, RH; Hansen, F. Referee—Univich. Umpire—Ashbury. Top Teams Vie Saturday, Cards Meet Lake Forest

Survivors of 1st Round To Battle for Hold on Northeast Grid Title

Last week Lake Forest and Arlington Heights put themselves on the spot for their annual football tussle this Saturday. Both teams defeated opponents who were the favorites for top ranking in the 1939 Northeast championship race.

Either both schools caught their opponents, Niles and Crystal Lake, respectively, off top form or else they themselves are better than rated. It is probable that both conditions were true.

Crystal Lake was short handed in the battle with the Cardinals. Their regular left tackle, Davis, was out and a couple of their backs were banged up enough to be off their best form. Also Niles somehow seemed slow to get going and were a lifeless crew until stung by Lake Forest's scoring. Also one of their regular backs was laid up with injuries.

But taking nothing away from either the Cardinals or Lake Forest, their game Saturday should be in interest all their previous contests. Arlington will outweigh Lake Forest considerably, as did Niles. Lake Forest won by out-charging the heavy Niles line. It remains to be seen what will happen when these two arch-rivals look up Saturday.

No one knows better than do the Arlington coaches that the football squads coached by Lindenmeyer, simply do not play poor football. They are always exceedingly well versed in their fundamentals, hence their previous successes. Their confidence in their own ability has carried them through many a game. It will be interesting to watch what will happen when these two fine teams clash on the new Lake Forest field Saturday.

McHenry Whips Grant

McHenry administered a 13-0 whipping to the invading Grant team of Ingleside last Friday. Schultz scored both touchdowns for Reed's McHenry eleven, one on a line buck and the other on a sleeper pass play. The winners had a weight advantage of which they made good use in overpowering the Northwest conference team. Clemens at guard and Franke at end were Grant's best line performers while Jacques and Koch shoed to best advantage in the backfield. Schultz was the whole show for McHenry.

Lake Forest Upsets Niles Center 13 to 6

by HANK VERBEKE

Lake Forest High's football team opened its conference schedule with a 13 to 6 victory over Niles Center on a rain soaked gridiron at Niles Center Friday.

Taking advantage of a blocked kick early in the first quarter, the Scouts pushed over their first touchdown and added another on the first play of the fourth period. Niles scored their only touchdown late in the fourth-quarter on a sustained march that was helped along with two of the many penalties on the over eager Scouts.

Cascara, Lake Forest half back, pulled the Scouts out of their first jam with a 74 yard kick out of the end zone. After that, the play of the Lake Forest line was what made victory possible.

Following Cascara's spectacular kick in the first quarter, the Scouts soon had their first score. Niles marched to the Lake Forest 44 yard line before things happened fast. A 15 yard penalty set the Trojans back to their 41 yard line. McIntosh seeped through the Trojan line to block Fields' punt and Lohman recovered on the 16 yard line for Lake Forest.

On the first play Lohman carried the ball on a reverse around left end and crossed the goal line. Lindenmeyer place kicked the point.

Midway in the third quarter, the Scouts had a great chance to increase their margin when O'Neill recovered a fumble by Harms of Niles Center on the two yard line. A determined goal line stand pushed the Scouts back to the nine yard line, where they lost the ball on downs. The Scouts regained the ball four plays later when Fields fumbled on fourth down and was thrown for an 11 yard loss by Gyllenberg back to the six yard line. This happened just as the third quarter ended.

When play resumed, Cascara faded to give a pass to Lindenmeyer in the end zone for a touchdown. Lindenmeyer's try point was blocked.

Taking the kickoff on their own 28 yard line, the Trojans marched to their touchdown. Baunhardt, Ford, Fields and Harms took turns hitting the line and sweeping the ends to advance to the 43 yard line where two successive penalties against the Scouts gave the Trojans a first down on the 20 yard stripe. Eight plays later Baunhardt went over from the four yard line on an end run. Fields missed the try for point.

Niles Center held the edge in most of the statistics. They made nine first downs to six for Lake Forest; gained 84 yards from scrimmage to the Scouts' 54; and gained 60 yards through penalties

Editorials Praise Work Of Ralph E. Church

Editorials from many leading newspapers of the state are heartily acclaiming the legislative work of Congressman Ralph E. Church, of the tenth congressional district. The Waukegan News Sun states, in part:

"A remarkable record of attendance at congressional sessions has been made by Rep. Ralph E. Church of Evanston, who represents the Tenth congressional district, which includes Lake county. "During the five years in which he has served as representative, Mr. Church has not missed a roll-call in the house. He was elected for the first time in 1934 and was re-elected in 1936 and 1938. All that time he has been right on the job in Washington, putting in his full time on legislative business instead of enjoying junkets to various parts of the country or taking care of his political fences at home while congress was in session. The result has been that he has answered every rollcall during the past five years. We do not know of another congressman who has such a record."

"Rep. Church's determination to maintain a perfect attendance record made it necessary for him to miss a steamer carrying delegates to a conference at Oslo, Norway, but he is making up lost time by flying. Although the steamer fares were defrayed by the government, Rep. Church is paying his airplane fare of $281.50 out of his own pocket."

To Be Candidate For State Representative

LESTER D. WILCOX, newspaper publisher and police magistrate of Bellwood, has announced that he will be a candidate for State Representative from the Seventh District in the Republican Primary next April.

The experience of many years as a newspaper man in Chicago suburbs and a thorough understanding of the problems confronting the suburban communities, especially qualifies Mr. Wilcox to represent the Seventh District in the General Assembly.

INSURANCE: — Farmers are increasingly large users of insurance of various kinds. Much can be said about insurance from the economic standpoint. How much insurance to have, what to have it on, where to get it and what kind of policy is desirable are problems a farmer must settle for himself. An intelligent answer to these questions requires adequate information and sound judgment.

The difficulty which purchasers of insurance have had in obtaining accurate information has many times led unscrupulous companies to take advantage of uninformed. As early as 1869 the Illinois legislature attempted to curb some of the existing injurious practices by enacting a law regulating insurance companies. Since that time the insurance laws of the state have been repeatedly amended and enlarged.

Two years ago the Illinois Insurance Code was adopted. It classifies all insurance into three groups: (1) life, accident and health; (2) casualty, fidelity and surety; and (3) fire and marine. A company doing business in the state must be classified in one of these three groups and must operate subject to the regulations contained in the act. The organization, financing and investment of insurance companies are all subject to regulation under this code.

Of particular interest to policyholders is the following section: "No company transacting the kind or kinds of business enumerated in class 1 (life, accident and health) shall issue or deliver in this state a policy or certificate of insurance which contains an endorsement or rider thereto, incorporate by reference by-law or other matter therein or use an application blank, in this state until the form and content of such policy, certificate, endorsement, rider, by-law or other matter incorporated by reference or application blank has been filed with and approved by the director (of insurance)." . . . It shall be the duty of the director to withhold approval of any policy, certificate, endorsement, rider, by-law or other matter incorporated by reference or application blank which contains any provision in this code, contains inconsistent, ambiguous or misleading clauses, or contains exceptions and conditions that unreasonably or deceptively affect the risk purported to be assumed.

The effect of such a provision will be administered is obvious. It makes insurance contracts safer, gives the companies fewer slight grounds for avoidance of policies and puts the purchaser less at his own risk when he buys a policy. The Illinois Insurance Code may be found in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 73, Sections 613-1691.

Rat Bait Orders Will Be Taken Until Saturday

Week's Campaign To Rid Farm Pests To Be Climaxed October 13

"Quite a bit of interest has been shown in the rat extermination campaign conducted by the Cook County Farm Bureau and the U. S. D. A. Biological Survey," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes. "The latest date that cooperators can get their orders in for bait is Saturday, Oct. 7."

"By this time letters to practically every farmer in the county have been mailed out with a card enclosed to be returned giving the amount of bait wanted. In practically every township of the county a distributing point for the bait on October 13, has been assigned. These distribution points are:

Farm Bureau office, Arlington Heights.

Lake-Cook Farm Supply, Arlington Heights, Schaumburg, and Des Plaines.

Henry Schiff farm, Sanders rd. north of Palatine rd.

Wm. Kengel farm, 2722 Glenview rd.

Brooks Greenhouse, 5926 Lincoln ave., Morton Grove.

A. W. Sodman farm, Bartlett.

Harvey Tague farm, Schaumburg rd. west of Barrington rd.

Otto Fees farm, Routes 58 and 59.

"The poison bait will be prepared by the Biological Survey and each package will consist of about 1 1/2 pounds or 100 baits and will be furnished at cost which is 35c per package. Farmers who come after this bait should be prepared to pay for it in the exact amount as there are no profits in handling this material. Each package contains one half fish and one half meat bait.

How To Use Bait
According to past experience of Mr. C. C. Oederkirk of the U. S. D. A. Biological Survey, prebaiting has been found to be advantageous in a county campaign, especially on farms where rats have been poisoned from time to time or attempts at poisoning have been made.

"It has been found that about a week in advance of the day about the sixth day, get a can of salmon and distribute it along rat runs and other places where rats will probably be present. Take these baits up after a day or so and put out fresh hamburger in the same places.

"Remove these baits and have it timed so about a couple of days have elapsed before the 13th. On the evening of the 13th, after you have secured your bait, bait your premises with the regular poison bait.

"Red squill is being used as the agent in the poisoning campaign. It is usually poisonous to rats and some mice but animals other than rodents on consuming it, will vomit. Rodents do not vomit, therefore they will be killed but other animals will usually throw it up. Even though red squill is not poisonous to non-rodents, still it is suggested that these baits be placed where no other animals can get to them.

"The results that will be obtained are: Farmers that prebait will usually get a fair kill. Possibly 90%. Farmers that do not prebait cannot expect to secure so good a kill. Sometimes the rats will not touch the poison at all. As a rule baiting in this manner gives about a 85% kill on an average.

"Other precautions — Farmers are urged to follow any other means that they can to rid their place of rats such as piling lumber high so dogs and cats can get under it. Destroying rat harbors caused by low floors, ratproofing corn cribs, etc. Farmers should write their Congressman for Farmers Bulletin No. 1638—Ratproofing Buildings and Premises.

"As a last request we ask farmers not to duplicate their orders for bait. If you have written for bait your order cannot be taken because your distribution point may not have been indicated. Either place your order through the order blank in the Cooperator which went to every Farm Bureau member in the county or through the card that was sent to every farmer in the county.

"In sending in your orders do not order through the Cooperator slip and the card at the same time. This will be a duplication of orders. In getting baits go to the distributing point for the townships listed above on October 13. You will be sent no other notice about securing your bait. The average sized farm will require one to two packages depending upon the amount of rats and baiting to be done. Participation is not confined to members of the Farm Bureau or any other organization."

Amethyst Is a Quartz
The amethyst is a quartz of clear purple or bluish-violet color, due to the presence of manganese. The dark reddish-purple is the most highly prized. Wade's "Textbook of Precious Stones" says the chief charm of the Siberian amethyst lies in its large red component, which enables it to change from a deep grape-purple by daylight to a fine red by artificial light that is rich in red rays and poor in blue ones.
